FROM

MAJOR C. T. C. PLOWDEN, I. A.,

FIRST ASSISTANT TO THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore.

Dated Bangalore, 23rd February 1920.

SIR,

RECEIVED
24 FEB 1920

Under the provisions of the Indian Arms Rules, 1909,

*Vide rule 33 (1) and schedule VI, license was necessary to cover the export from British India to any Indian State of arms and ammunition required for the personal use of a Ruling Prince or Chief or the subject of any State. The license could be granted, among others, by the Political Officer concerned and, in the case of a consignment from a presidency town, by the Commissioners of Police, Madras and Bombay and the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Calcutta. The Police Authorities were, however, required to obtain the consent of the Political Officer of the State to which a consignment was destined before issuing a license.

2. This procedure has now been modified by the Indian Arms Rules, 1920, which, in respect of arms and ammunition ordered from the towns of Madras, Bombay and Calcutta, dispense with the reference to the Political Officer when the supply is for the personal use of (1) a Ruling Prince or Chief, or (2) a member of his family, or a noble or an official of his State who be designated in this behalf by the Political Officer concerned. 15

3. The Local Governments concerned are being requested to instruct the Commissioners of Police, Madras and Bombay, and the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, to issue licences with as little delay as possible on receipt of applications from vendors on behalf of purchasers of the categories mentioned in the preceding paragraph.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

First Assistant Resident.

Letter No. 1619, dated the 23rd February 1920, received from the First Assistant to the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore, regarding the procedure to be followed in the case of arms and ammunitions ordered for the personal use of a Ruling Prince, etc.

Under the provisions of the Indian Arms *Rules, 1909, a license was necessary to cover the export from British India to any Indian State of arms and ammunition required for the personal use of a Ruling Prince or Chief or the subject of any State. The license could be granted, among others by the Political Officer concerned and, in the case of a consignment from a Presidency Town, by the Commissioners of Police, Madras and Bombay, and the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Calcutta. The Police Authorities were, however, required to obtain the consent of the Political Officer of the State to which a consignment was destined before issuing a license.

*Vide Rule 33 (1) and Schedule VI.
2. This procedure has now been modified by the Indian Arms *Rules, 1920, which, in respect of arms and ammunition ordered from the towns of Madras, Bombay and Calcutta, dispense with the reference to the Political Officer when the supply is for the personal use of (1) a Ruling Prince or Chief, or (2) a member of his family, or a noble or an official of his State who may be designated in this behalf by the Political Officer concerned.

*Vide Rule 34 (1).
3. The Local Governments concerned are being requested to instruct the Commissioners of Police, Madras and Bombay, and the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, to issue licenses with as little delay as possible on receipt of applications from vendors on behalf of purchasers of the categories mentioned in the preceding paragraph.
